

AMYLYX PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics – Co-Chief Executive Officers’ Message

August 2024

Dear Amylyx Colleague:

At Amylyx, patients are our true north. To succeed in our mission to help patients, our employees, directors, and designated agents acting on our behalf must always conduct business with integrity and ethics, and consistent with all applicable policies, laws, rules and regulations.

Attached to help all of us is our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. Our Code is a reaffirmation of Amylyx’s commitment to conducting its business ethically and to observing applicable laws, rules, policies and regulations. The Code reminds and guides us through the principles and requirements that govern our business and behavior. When representing Amylyx, each employee, director and designated agent’s behavior must protect and promote both the letter of the Code and its spirit of ethical conduct. Your adherence to the Code is fundamental to our future success.

The Code cannot provide definitive answers to all questions. Accordingly, we expect each employee, director and designated agent to exercise reasonable judgment to determine whether a course of action is consistent with our ethical and legal standards, and to seek guidance when appropriate. Your supervisor will often be the person who can provide you with thoughtful, practical guidance in your day-to-day duties. We have also appointed Sue Dyer as our Compliance Officer, so you should feel free to ask questions or seek guidance from her at Sue_Dyer@amylyx.com. Finally, you can anonymously report concerns at amylyx.ethicspoint.com or via U.S. toll-free helpline at (833) 778-1542 (ex-U.S. country-specific helpline numbers can also be found at the online portal at amylyx.ethicspoint.com).

Please read the Code carefully and ensure that you understand it. If you have any questions concerning the Code, please speak with your supervisor or the Compliance Officer. Within fourteen days of receiving the Code, please acknowledge your understanding of, and compliance with, the Code in Amylyx University. You will be asked to confirm your understanding and compliance with the Code annually. The Code is also publicly available on our website under “Investors”, “Corporate Governance”.

Sincerely,

Joshua Cohen and Justin Klee
Co-Chief Executive Officers

AMYLYX PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

I. Purpose and Scope

The Board of Directors of Amylyx Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, the “Company”) has adopted this Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (this “Code”) to aid the Company’s directors, officers, employees and certain designated agents in making ethical and legal decisions when conducting the Company’s business and performing their day-to-day duties.

The Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) or a committee of the Board is responsible for administering the Code. The Board has delegated day-to-day responsibility for administering and interpreting the Code to a Compliance Officer.

The Company expects its directors, officers, employees and designated agents to exercise reasonable judgment when conducting the Company’s business. Respecting and following the principles of this Code is a condition of employment (or engagement) with the Company. The Company encourages its directors, officers, employees and designated agents to refer to this Code frequently to ensure that they are acting within both the letter and spirit of this Code. The Company also understands that this Code will not solve every problem you may encounter or address every concern you may have about conducting the Company’s business ethically and legally. In these situations, or if you otherwise have questions or concerns about this Code, the Company requires that you to speak with your supervisor and/or the Compliance Officer to seek guidance.

The Company’s directors, officers, employees and designated agents generally have other legal and contractual obligations to the Company. Everyone is responsible for complying with the legal and regulatory requirements that pertain to their jobs. This Code is not intended to reduce or limit the other obligations you may have to the Company. Instead, this Code should be viewed as imposing the minimum standards the Company expects from its directors, officers, employees and designated agents in the conduct of the Company’s business.

II. Standards of Conduct

A. Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations; Whistleblower Protection

The Company requires that all employees, officers, directors and designated agents comply with all laws, rules, policies and regulations applicable to the Company wherever it does business. You are expected to use good judgment and common sense in seeking to comply with all applicable laws, rules, policies and regulations and to ask for advice when you are uncertain about them.

If you become aware of the violation of any law, rule, policy, or regulation by the Company, whether by its officers, employees, directors, or any third-party doing business on behalf of the Company, it is your responsibility to promptly report the matter to your supervisor or to the Compliance Officer. While it is the Company’s desire to address matters internally, nothing in this Code should discourage you from reporting any illegal activity, including any violation of the securities laws, antitrust laws, environmental laws or any other federal, state or foreign law, rule or regulation, to the appropriate regulatory authority as outlined in the next paragraph. Directors, officers, employees and designated agents shall not discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or in any other manner discriminate or retaliate against an employee because they report any such violation, unless it is determined that the report was made with knowledge that it was false.

Whistleblower Protection. Nothing contained in this Code, any agreement you have entered into with the Company, or any other Company policy limits your ability, with or without notice to the Company, to: (i) file a charge or complaint with any federal, state or local governmental agency or commission (a “Government Agency”) such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board or the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”); (ii) communicate with any Government Agency or otherwise participate in any investigation or proceeding that may be conducted by any Government Agency, including by providing information or documents not subject to attorney-client privilege; (iii) exercise any rights under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act, which are available to non-supervisory employees, including assisting co-workers with or discussing any employment issue as part of engaging in concerted activities for the purpose of mutual aid or protection; (iv) share compensation information concerning you or others (provided that this does not permit you to disclose compensation information concerning others that you obtain because your job responsibilities require or allow access to such information); (v) discuss or disclose information about unlawful acts in the workplace, such as harassment or discrimination or any other conduct that you have reason to believe is unlawful; or (vi) testify truthfully in a legal proceeding.

Any communications and disclosures related to these matters must be consistent with applicable law and the information disclosed must not have been obtained through a communication that was subject to the attorney-client privilege (unless disclosure of that information would otherwise be permitted consistent with such privilege or applicable law). The Company will not limit any right you may have to receive an award pursuant to the whistleblower provisions of any applicable law or regulation for providing information to the SEC or any other Government Agency.

Any provisions of any agreement between the Company and any current or former employee that is inconsistent with the above language or that may limit or interfere with the ability of any person to receive an award under the whistleblower provisions of applicable law will not be enforced by the Company.

B. Conflicts of Interest

The Company recognizes and respects the right of its directors, officers, employees and designated agents to engage in outside activities that they may deem proper and desirable, provided that these activities do not impair, interfere, or appear to interfere with the performance of their duties to the Company or their ability to act in the Company’s best interests. In most, if not all, cases this will mean that our directors, officers, employees and designated agents must avoid situations that present a potential or actual conflict between their personal interests and the Company’s interests.

A “conflict of interest” occurs when a director’s, officer’s, employee’s or designated agent’s personal interest interferes or appears to interfere with the Company’s interests. Conflicts of interest can arise in many situations. For example, conflicts of interest can arise when a director, officer, employee or designated agent takes an action or has an outside interest, responsibility or obligation that can make it difficult for them to perform the responsibilities of their position objectively or effectively in the Company’s best interests. Conflicts of interest can also occur when a director, officer or employee or their immediate family member receives some personal benefit (whether improper or not) as a result of the director’s, officer’s, employee’s or designated agent’s position with the Company. Each individual’s situation is different, and in evaluating their own situation, a director, officer, employee or designated agent will have to consider many factors, and should consult the Compliance Officer for guidance.

Any material transaction, responsibility, obligation, or relationship that reasonably could be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest should be reported promptly to the Compliance Officer, who may notify the Board or a committee of the Board as they deem appropriate. Actual or potential conflicts of interest involving a director or executive officer other than the Compliance Officer should be disclosed directly to the Compliance Officer. Actual or potential conflicts of interest involving the Compliance Officer should be disclosed directly to the Chief Legal Officer or the Chief Human Resources Officer.

C. Insider Trading

Employees, officers, directors and designated agents who have material non-public information about the Company or other companies, including our suppliers and customers, as a result of their relationship with the Company are prohibited by law and Company policy from trading in securities of the Company or such other companies, as well as from communicating such information to others who might trade on the basis of that information. To help ensure that you do not engage in prohibited insider trading and avoid even the appearance of an improper transaction, the Company has adopted an Insider Trading Policy, which is distributed to employees and is also available from the Compliance Officer. If you are uncertain about the constraints on your purchase or sale of any Company securities or the securities of any other company that you are familiar with by virtue of your relationship with the Company, you should consult with the Compliance Officer before making any such purchase or sale.

D. Confidentiality

Subject to the whistleblower protections set forth in Section II.A, employees, officers, directors and designated agents must maintain the confidentiality of confidential information entrusted to them by the Company or other companies, including our suppliers and customers, except when disclosure is authorized by a supervisor or legally mandated. Unauthorized disclosure of any confidential information is prohibited. Additionally, directors, officers, employees and designated agents should take appropriate precautions to ensure that confidential or sensitive business information, whether it is proprietary to the Company or another company, is not communicated within the Company except to directors, officers, employees and designated agents who have a need to know such information to perform their responsibilities for the Company.

Third parties may ask you for information concerning the Company. Subject to the exceptions noted in the preceding paragraph, and the whistleblower protections set forth in Section II.A, employees, officers, directors and designated agents (other than the Company's authorized spokespersons) must not discuss internal Company matters with, or disseminate internal Company information to, anyone outside the Company, except as required in the performance of their Company duties and, if appropriate, after a confidentiality agreement is in place. This prohibition applies particularly to inquiries concerning the Company from the media, market professionals (such as securities analysts, institutional investors, investment advisers, brokers and dealers) and security holders. All responses to inquiries on behalf of the Company must be made only by the Company's authorized spokespersons. If you receive any inquiries of this nature, you must decline to comment and refer the inquirer to your supervisor or one of the Company's authorized spokespersons. The Company's policies with respect to public disclosure of internal matters are described more fully in the Company's Disclosure Policy.

You also must abide by any lawful obligations that you have to your former employer. These obligations may include restrictions on the use and disclosure of confidential information, restrictions on the solicitation of former colleagues to work at the Company and non-competition obligations.

Nothing in the Code, including the above confidentiality obligations, are intended to violate rights under the National Labor Relations Act, Section 7.

E. Honest and Ethical Conduct and Fair Dealing

Employees, officers, directors and designated agents should endeavor to deal honestly, ethically and fairly with the Company's suppliers, customers, competitors and employees. Statements regarding the Company's products and services must not be untrue, misleading, deceptive or fraudulent. You must not take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair-dealing practice. Third parties such as suppliers, brokers, consultants, agents, and vendors are an integral part of the Company's business. It is important to understand that Amylyx can be held responsible for the actions of third parties in some instances. Specifically, anti-corruption laws prohibit indirect payments made through a third party for improper purposes. Accordingly, directors, officers, employees, and designated agents must take reasonable precautions to ensure that Amylyx's third parties observe applicable laws. You must strive to select third parties whose business practices align with the standards of this Code.

F. Protection and Proper Use of Corporate Assets

Employees, officers, directors and designated agents should seek to protect the Company's assets. Theft, carelessness and waste have a direct impact on the Company's financial performance. Employees, officers and directors must use the Company's assets and services solely for legitimate business purposes of the Company and not for any personal benefit or the personal benefit of anyone else.

G. Corporate Opportunities

Employees, officers, directors and designated agents owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate business interests when the opportunity to do so arises. Each employee, officer, director, and designated agent is prohibited from:

- diverting to themselves or to others any opportunities that are discovered through the use of the Company's property or information or as a result of their position with the Company unless that opportunity has first been presented to, and rejected by, the Company;
- using the Company's property or information or their position for improper personal gain; or
- competing with the Company.

H. Political Contributions

Business contributions to political campaigns are strictly regulated by federal, state, provincial and local law in the U.S. and many other jurisdictions. Accordingly, all political contributions proposed to be made with the Company's funds must be coordinated through and approved by the Compliance Officer. Directors, officers, employees and designated agents may not, without the approval of the Compliance Officer, use any Company funds for political contributions of any kind to any political candidate or holder of any national, state or local government office. Directors, officers, employees and designated agents may make personal contributions, but must not represent that they are making contributions on the Company's behalf. Specific questions should be directed to the Compliance Officer.

I. Bribes, Kickbacks and Other Improper Payments

The Company is committed to complying with all applicable anti-bribery, anti-kickback, and anti-corruption laws in the areas in which it operates. The Company does not permit or condone bribes, kickbacks or other improper payments, transfers or receipts. No director, officer, employee or designated agent should offer, give, solicit or receive any money or other item of value for the purpose of improperly obtaining, retaining or directing business or bestowing or receiving any kind of favored treatment, whether directly or through third parties.

J. International Trade Controls

Many countries regulate international trade transactions, such as imports, exports and international financial transactions and prohibit boycotts against countries or firms that may be “blacklisted” by certain groups or countries. The Company’s policy is to comply with these regulations and prohibitions even if compliance may result in the loss of some business opportunities. Employees should learn and understand the extent to which international trade controls apply to transactions conducted by the Company.

K. Accuracy of Records

Employees, officers, directors and designated agents must honestly and accurately report all business transactions and abide by the Company’s internal accounting controls. You are responsible for the accuracy of your records and reports. Accurate information is essential to the Company’s ability to meet legal and regulatory obligations.

All Company books, records and accounts shall be maintained in accordance with all applicable regulations and standards and accurately reflect the true nature of the transactions they record. The financial statements of the Company shall conform to generally accepted accounting rules and the Company’s accounting policies. No undisclosed or unrecorded account or fund shall be established for any purpose. No false or misleading entries shall be made in the Company’s books or records for any reason, and no disbursement of corporate funds or other corporate property shall be made without adequate supporting documentation.

L. Quality of Public Disclosures

It is the policy of the Company to provide full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents filed with, or submitted to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public communications.

III. Compliance Procedures

A. Communication of Code

All current directors, officers, employees and designated agents are being supplied a copy of the Code. Future directors, officers, employees, and designated agents will be supplied a copy of the Code when beginning service at the Company. All directors, officers and employees will be expected to review and sign an acknowledgment regarding the Code on a periodic basis. Updates of the Code, when adopted, will be promptly supplied to directors, officers and employees. Directors, officers and employees also can obtain a copy of the Code by requesting one from the Compliance Officer.

B. Monitoring Compliance and Disciplinary Action

The Company's management, under the supervision of its Board or a committee of the Board or, in the case of accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing or securities law matters, the Audit Committee, shall take reasonable steps to (i) monitor compliance with the Code, and (ii) when appropriate, impose and enforce appropriate disciplinary measures for violations of the Code.

Disciplinary measures for violations of the Code will be determined in the Company's sole discretion and may include, but are not limited to, counseling, oral or written reprimands, warnings, probation or suspension with or without pay, demotions, reductions in salary, termination of employment or service, and restitution.

The Company's management shall periodically report to the Board or a committee of the Board on these compliance efforts including, without limitation, alleged violations of the Code and the actions taken with respect to violations.

C. Communication Channels

Be Proactive. Every director, officer, employee and designated agent is encouraged to act proactively by asking questions, seeking guidance and reporting suspected violations of the Code and other policies and procedures of the Company, as well as any violation or suspected violation of law, rule or regulation resulting from the conduct of the Company's business or occurring on the Company's property. If any director, officer, employee or designated agent believes that actions have taken place, may be taking place, or may be about to take place that violate or would violate the Code or any law, policy or regulation applicable to the Company, they are obligated (subject to the whistleblower protections set forth in Section II.A above) to bring the matter to the attention of the Company. You can report concerns directly to the Compliance Officer, or you can anonymously report concerns at amylyx.ethicspoint.com or via U.S. toll-free helpline at (833) 778-1542 (ex-U.S. country-specific helpline numbers can also be found at the online portal at amylyx.ethicspoint.com).

Seeking Guidance. The best starting point for officers or employees seeking advice on ethics-related issues or wishing to report potential violations of the Code will usually - their supervisor. However, if the conduct in question involves an officer's or employee's supervisor, if the officer or employee has reported the conduct in question to the supervisor and does not believe that the supervisor has dealt with it properly, or if the officer or employee does not feel comfortable discussing the matter with the supervisor, the officer or employee may raise the matter with the Compliance Officer.

Communication Options. Any officer or employee may communicate with the Compliance Officer, or report potential violations of the Code, by any of the following methods (which can be done anonymously as set forth below under "Anonymity"):

- In writing, addressed to the Compliance Officer, by mail to 43 Thorndike St., Cambridge, MA 02141;
- Online at amylyx.ethicspoint.com; or
- Via U.S. toll-free helpline at (833) 778-1542. Ex-U.S. country-specific helpline numbers can also be found at the online portal at Amylyx.ethicspoint.com.

Reporting Accounting and Similar Concerns. Concerns or questions regarding potential violations of the Code, a Company policy or procedure or laws, rules or regulations relating to accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing or securities law matters will be directed to the Audit Committee of the Board (the “Audit Committee”) or a designee of the Audit Committee in accordance with the procedures established by the Audit Committee for receiving, retaining and treating complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters. Officers and employees can also communicate directly with the Audit Committee or its designee regarding such matters by the following methods (which can be done anonymously as set forth below under “Anonymity”):

- In writing, addressed to the Compliance Officer, by mail to 43 Thorndike St., Cambridge, MA 02141;
- Online at amylyx.ethicspoint.com; or
- Via U.S. toll-free helpline at (833) 778-1542. Ex-U.S. country-specific helpline numbers can also be found at the online portal at Amylyx.ethicspoint.com.

Cooperation. Employees, officers, directors and designated agents are expected to cooperate with the Company in any investigation of a potential violation of the Code, any other Company policy or procedure, or any law, rule or regulation.

Misuse of Reporting Channels. Employees, officers, directors and designated agents should not use these reporting channels in bad faith or in a false or frivolous manner or to report grievances that do not involve the Code or other ethics-related issues.

Director Communications. In addition to the foregoing methods, a director also can communicate concerns or seek advice with respect to this Code by contacting the Board through its Chair or the Audit Committee.

D. Anonymity

The Company prefers that officers and employees, when reporting suspected violations of the Code, identify themselves to facilitate the Company’s ability to take steps to address the suspected violation, including conducting an investigation. However, the Company also recognizes that, in certain circumstances, colleagues may prefer to report a suspected violation anonymously.

An officer, employee, director or designated agent who wishes to remain anonymous may do so, and the Company will use reasonable efforts to protect confidentiality. If a report is made anonymously, however, the Company may not have sufficient information to investigate or evaluate the allegations. Accordingly, persons who report suspected violations anonymously should provide as much detail as they can to permit the Company to evaluate the allegation and, if it deems appropriate, conduct an investigation.

E. No Retaliation

The Company forbids any retaliation against a director, officer, employee, or designated agent who, acting in good faith on the basis of a reasonable belief, reports suspected misconduct. Specifically, the Company will not discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or in any other manner discriminate against, such a director, officer, employee, or designated agent. Anyone who participates in any such conduct is subject to disciplinary action, including termination.

IV. Waivers and Amendments

No waiver of any provisions of the Code for the benefit of a director or an executive officer (which includes, without limitation, the Company's principal executive, financial and accounting officers) shall be effective unless (i) approved by the Board or, if permitted, the Audit Committee, and (ii) if required, the waiver is promptly disclosed to the Company's securityholders in accordance with applicable U.S. securities laws and the rules and regulations of the exchange or system on which the Company's shares are traded or quoted, as the case may be.

Any waivers of the Code for other employees may be made by the Compliance Officer, the Board or, if permitted, the Audit Committee.

All amendments to the Code must be approved by the Board and, if required, must be promptly disclosed to the Company's securityholders in accordance with United States securities laws and Nasdaq rules and regulations.

Adopted December 9, 2021, subject to effectiveness of the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1.

Amended August 28, 2024